About The Course

Welcome to 'The Complete Web Development Mastery: From Complete Beginner to Agency Owner' designed for anyone eager to dive into the world of web development using WordPress and Elementor. Whether you're a complete beginner or have some experience in building websites, this course is crafted to take you on a transformative journey from understanding the basics to mastering the complexities of getting clients and launching successful web projects.

Throughout this course, we'll cover everything you need to know to become a proficient web developer using these powerful tools. From grasping the foundational concepts of web development and WordPress setup to diving deep into Elementor's advanced features and strategies for attracting and retaining clients, each module is carefully crafted to provide you with practical skills and actionable insights.

By the end of this course, you'll not only have the technical know-how to create beautiful and functional websites but also the business acumen to market your services effectively and thrive in the competitive world of web development. So, let's embark on this exciting journey together and unlock the doors to endless opportunities in the dynamic realm of web development with WordPress and Elementor.

Let Me Introduce Myself

My name is Siloma Stephen, a digital creative with over 12+ years in developing top-tier websites for institutions like ICPAK, government bodies like NHIF, MSMEs like Winnies Pure Health, e-commerce websites like Samsung Kenya among others. I've also handled digital marketing and graphic design for prestigious organizations like the UNSC and UNSDSN.

I run my digital agency Brait Consulting Limited where I craft visually stunning websites for my clients and also help optimize their online presence turning their online visitors to clients. I also run Brait Academy, a FREE online school where I upskill young underprivileged youth in tech, design and marketing.

I'm now ready to teach you these same in-demand skills. My mission is to help you learn, grow, and monetize your skills, just as I have. Whether it's creating impactful websites, mastering graphic design & digital marketing or building your own agency, I'll guide you every step of the way.
